Wedding & Event BROCHURE 2009-2010

Situated in its own extensive grounds, just south of Pitlochry, East Haugh House is a truly romantic Scottish wedding venue. With turrets and tartan, spiral staircases and four posters and even a delightfully picturesque Victorian Gate Lodge, this four star hotel with the award-winning "Two Sisters" restaurant is an ideal location for your special celebration. East Haugh House is licensed to hold Civil Marriages either in the hotel itself or the Gate Lodge, depending on the party.

ACCOMMODATION

The hotel and Gate Lodge together sleep up to 30 people with local BBs available for overspill. Rooms range from four posters with jacuzzi baths and open fires to cosy rooms under the eaves.

The "Two Sisters" restaurant seats 35-40 for a formal meal, or 45-50 for a stand-up finger buffet.

For larger groups a marquee would be necessary and we can cater for up to 200 in a marquee.

Attention to detail is our forte and we work very closely with the bride and groom to ensure that everything goes like clockwork on the day.

We offer suggestions for your wedding menu, florists, cakes, photographers, pipers and transport. Nothing is too much trouble for the team at East Haugh House.

TESTIMONIAL FROM

COLIN AND CINDY MACKIE, January 2009

"...a more perfect setting we couldn't have asked for. The hotel and staff were absolutely superb and went above and beyond what we expected from them. Top class food, exceptional hospitality and the organisation for the whole weekend seemed to just happen, with no intrusion into anything we were doing. Amazing! East Haugh House is now firmly in our hearts and we will be visiting for the rest of our lives as much as we can. Perfect."

We will work to your budget and can offer very competitive packages, particularly between October and April and even more competitive mid-week.

CUISINE

Neil McGown, chef/proprietor, recently won a Médaille d'Or for Dinner Excellence at the 2009 Scottish Hotel Awards and our "Two Sisters" Restaurant won Best Speciality Restaurant in the 2009 Bank of Scotland Restaurant awards.

Your wedding here will be a culinary experience not to be missed! We use only the freshest locally sourced produce and can offer to help plan your wedding menu to suit your tastes and budget.

EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE HOTEL

To make your wedding even more special, you can take exclusive use of the hotel and have your own private, and fully catered, "house party".

ENQUIRIES

THE VICTORIAN GATE LODGE

Totally self contained and only a minute's walk from the main building, the Lodge affords absolute privacy. With open fires throughout it is the perfect hideaway for the "newly weds" to spend their first night. Also an ideal venue for the bride and her bridesmaids to prepare for the big day.
